Tailor Made Project

Our team, always ready to accomodate any request, it's always looking for the next step, innovating, combining materials and searching for new technologies.

The era of total black is now over (but still available), we have various proposal you can choose from, for example:

- Custom tolex colors;
- Custom tolex color and print (we can print your own design on your new RedSeven amplifier, yes!);
- AAAAA figured wood, front panels or even more crazier full headshell build;
- Custom color for chassis available;
- New devices and custom amps are now available.

All prices above are subject to change without notice.
